"Beaurenard is one of the sure values of the appellation. [...] The house style is very masterful and promises great surprises to those who know how to wait."

Guide Bettane & Desseauve

"The Coulons are among the most forward thinking in terms of their viticulture and winemaking."

James Molesworth, Wine Spectator

"Reference point Châteauneuf du Pape producer."

"This estate consistently makes one of the most classic, age worthy whites in the appellation"

Jeb Dunnuck

"Domaine de Beaurenard is one of the best Rhone biodynamic estates."

"A very good domaine, highly reliable, with admirable quality over the decades I have known it."

John Livingstone

"Freshness, purity and transparency are words I often find myself using for the red and white tradition bottlings. These characteristics are accentuated in the red and white Boisrenard cuvées, which are rarely less than excellent [...]"

“The base 2021 Châteauneuf Du Pape [...] is certainly solid, with a peppery, garrigue, and spicy bouquet as well as medium-bodied richness, a vibrant, pure, focused mouthfeel, quality tannins, and a great finish. As with all the wines from Beurenard, there's a decidedly Burgundian-like elegance that makes it incredibly charming, even now as a barrel sample.”

“The 2020 Châteauneuf Du Pape is terrific, offering classic darker berry fruits as well as peppery garrigue and sappy flower notes. As with the Boisrenard release, this has plenty of tannins and structure, but it’s beautifully balanced and has remarkable purity as well as a great finish.”

Jeb Dunnuck

Wine Spectator

“An elegant red, with nice freshness and purity to the wild cherry, plum and red licorice flavors. Shows a spine of crushed graphite that firms up the somewhat structured palate, with charred garrigue and sandalwood on the finish.”

James Molesworth

“Fruit appetising and fresh. Juicy and appealing on the palate, the tannins firm but fine and integrated. Clean, firm but fresh on the finish. Plenty of power but reined in. Nothing out of place.”

James Lawther

JEB DUNNUCK

"Beautiful cassis, violets, graphite, and chalky minerality all emerge on the nose, and it's medium to full-bodied, with a tight, focused, elegant mouthfeel, plenty of underlying structure, and the vintage's fresher, pure, seamless style front and center."

"Very dark, dense and bold, this is very tannic indeed. There's concentration here, and it should become good in time, after a long wait. The acidity is lower than most 2021s, but the tannins have finesse."

"Deep, brooding ruby. Very youthful with extremely tight-knit tannins. Good concentration of dark fruits, violet and spice with floral notes and blackcurrant. A layered finish. Very well-judged acidity and alcohol. Balanced, fine and elegant."

“The flagship from this great estate is the 2020 Châteauneuf Du Pape Boisrenard, which is based on 80% Grenache and small doses of 17 other varieties. This deeply hued beauty offers a stunning bouquet of blackberries, scorched earth, licorice, ground pepper, and sappy garrigue. I always find a Burgundian-like texture on this wine, and the 2020 is no exception – this is one to put into a blind tasting of Grand Cru Red Burgundies and shock your friends. Medium to full-bodied, ultra-pure, with grippy, sappy tannins, flawless balance, and a great finish, it’s pure class all the way. It’s going to need at least 4-6 years of bottle age, but this is a wine you don’t want to miss, and one of the finest wines I’ve tasted from this estate.”

“Full and generous on the palate, no lack of fruit or depth here. Powerful and plentiful fine tannins and a great, rising sense of energy and freshness. Impressive, with real finesse and precision - no excess weight, but great surging intensity and freshness.”

Matt Walls

Wine Spectator

94

“Boasts beautiful red currant, licorice and spice cake flavors that are concentrated and rich, yet balanced by salty minerality, earth and fresh pepper highlights. Shows smoke and singed sandalwood that fill in the backdrop, while graphite laces the still-grippy finish.”

“Beautiful citrus blossom, ripe pear, and some honeyed mineral-like notes all emerge from the 2021 Châteauneuf Du Pape Blanc, a brilliant, medium-bodied white [...]. It shows the clean, fresh, vibrant style of the vintage and is impeccably balanced.”

“Notes of blond tobacco and cedar on the nose, but not overly oaky [...], with lovely bright acidity. There's a flattering, welcome note of sweet ripeness to the pear and quince fruit. Good length, balanced and precise.”

Matt Walls

“A distinctive style, with ripe melon, floral highlights and juicy yet savory lemony acidity. Delivers dried hay and salted butter that fill out the backdrop, and the texture is silky and polished.”

“Rich palate with quite notable alcohol and weight. Texturally very interesting – anise and herbs with plenty of concentration of fruit. Rich, dense and opulent style but very attractive.”

“I always love the base white from this team, and the 2020 Châteauneuf Du Pape Blanc is another winner that readers will love. It reveals a vivid light gold hue as well as classy notes of crushed citrus, pear, white flowers, and chalky minerality. It's clean, bright, medium-bodied, and beautifully balanced. You can drink it today or cellar it for decades.”

"Slightly deeper gold-hued compared to the classic cuvée, it offers textbook notes of sauteed peach, honeyed citrus, flower oil, and hints of green almonds. Medium to full-bodied, concentrated, and beautifully balanced, it has good acidity and a great finish. It brings more richness and opulence than the base cuvée [...]. Both are brilliant wines."

Jeb Dunnuck

"The nose suggests ripe pears, grilled almonds and custard. Lots of acidity through the mid palate and a rich finish follows – interesting and very appealing. I love the freshness this has throughout – wonderful."

"Full-bodied, rich and concentrated, with plenty of extract on the palate. Driving acidity and a powerful finish suggest this has a long life ahead of it. It's delicious now, however, in a big and bold - but dry - style with a saline finish."

Matt Walls

Wine Spectator

95

"Juicy and fresh, with an enticingly plump core of white peach, yellow apple, star fruit and acacia notes that glide through a verbena-gilded finish. The subtle underlying acidity helps to carry this off easily, leaving an echo of macadamia nut at the very end. Gorgeous."

James Molesworth

JEB DUNNUCK

"It's a deeper, richer white offering ample spice, baked apple, and Tarte Tatin-like notes in a balanced, still vibrant, fresh style. It's going to benefit from a year or two of bottle age, and it too should have a decade (or more) of overall longevity."

"Cool blue-fruit notes on the nose, the palate is fresh and layered with a spice and firm and chewy tannins. A little introverted at the moment, but plenty of fruit here and good acidity should see this knit together nicely."

"The intense wild-blackberry and damson-plum aromas are married to an expansive palate, but the well-integrated tannins and lively acidity keep this bright and clean. Lots of licorice and wild-herb character at the long, focused finish."

James Suckling

"Good fresh fruit, this is smooth and approachable. Nice ripeness of fruit and tannin here, teamed with quite forthright acidity. More classically Rasteau than many this year, this has ample fruit and muscle."

Matt Walls

"Violets, floral notes and liquorice stand out on the attractive nose. The palate has very well-judged firm and fine tannins, and lovely concentration of spiced dark fruits, liquorice and crushed blackberry. Very elegant, refined with a textured, ripe and very pure vibrant finish."

Alistair Cooper

Wine Spectator

"There is underlying power to this seductive wine, which opens with rich blackberry paste and vanilla-steeped cherry edged in graphite and roasted herbs. This is anchored by fine-grained tannins and a salty, smoky mineral finish that lingers."
